UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS ON A FOREIGN DEFENDANT

The Clerk of Court's Office will accomplish service overseas of the summons and complaint, either directly or through the U.S. Department of State under the following statutes:

1. An individual in a foreign state, under Rule 4(f)(2)(C)(ii) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures (FRCP); or
2. A foreign state or a political subdivision of a foreign state under the Foreign Services Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(3); or
3. A foreign state or a political subdivision of a foreign state through diplomatic channels via the U.S. Department of State under the Foreign Services Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(4); or
4. An agency or instrumentality of a foreign state, under the Foreign Services Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. §1608(b)(3)(B).

OTHER DOCUMENTS SERVED

- Orders

An order may be entered by the court at any time during a case. The judge may request that the order be served upon the defendant(s) and should state specifically which rule to follow. An order should be served following the same methods by FRCP 4(f)(2)(C)(ii), 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(3), 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(4), or 28 U.S.C. §1608(b)(3)(B), depending on which rule the judge specifies.

- Defaults

A default may be entered by the court against a foreign defendant assuming the summons and complaint was returned unexecuted, AND the deadline for the answer has passed. A foreign state, political subdivision, or an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state has 60 days to answer the complaint. An individual has 20 days to answer the complaint. A default should be served according to rule judge specifies to follow: FRCP 4(f)(2)(C)(ii), 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(3), 28 U.S.C. §1608(b)(3)(B), or 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(4).

- Judgments/Default Judgments

A default may be entered by the court against a foreign defendant. The judge may request that the order be served upon the defendant(s) and should state specifically which rule to follow. A judgment or default judgment should be served following using: FRCP 4(f)(2)(C)(ii), 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(3), 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(4), or 28 U.S.C. §1608(b)(3)(B) depending on which rule the judge specifies.

METHODS OF SERVICE

The Clerk of Court strongly recommends the use of Federal Express (FedEx) or DHL Worldwide Express (DHL) rather than the United States Postal Service (USPS). The USPS requirements for such service are complicated and failing to comply to their standards, will result in the return of a package delaying its ultimate delivery. Using FedEx or DHL also avoids the necessity of providing the Clerk's Office with cash for postage.

Rules Set by the U.S. Postal Service

1. Do not use postage meter stamps.
2. Leave more than the exact amount for the postal fee.
3. Do not seal envelopes.
4. Make sure there is glue on the pink return receipt. (Postal Form 2865)
Mailing labels are not accepted on foreign mailing envelopes. Addresses must be typed or handwritten on the envelope.
5. The following envelopes are ineligible for Registered Mail:
 - a. Mail presented in a padded envelope; envelope or mailer manufactured of spun bonded.
 - b. olefin, such as Tyvek; plastic envelope or mailer; or envelope or mailer
 - c. made of glossy-coated paper.
6. Packages weighing more than four pounds must be split up according to post office regulations.

Please check with your local Post Office for the appropriate customs forms as well as updated forms.

Courier Service

Overnight mail (FedEx & DHL) is acceptable, as long as you are able to obtain a signed returned receipt. You may track the delivery of your package on the courier's website, and print the tracking summary indicating that the package was delivered to its ultimate destination. Provide a copy of that tracking summary and cover letter to the Clerk of Court as your return of service. If you have any questions, or would like a copy of our INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS ON A FOREIGN DEFENDANT, please see the administrative assistant to the Clerk of Court, Room 120 or visit the Court's website at www.nysd.uscourts.gov.

Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976

The Foreign Service Immunities Act of 1976 (FSIA) limits the role of the Executive Branch in suits against foreign governments and governmental entities by precluding the Department of State from making decisions on state immunity. A party to a lawsuit, including a foreign state or its agency or instrumentality, is required to present defenses such as sovereign immunity directly to the court in which the case is pending.

FSIA (28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(1)-(4)) provides for service of process on foreign state defendants in a four-step, hierarchical manner: (Source: www.travel.state.gov)

1. Pursuant to a special agreement between the plaintiff and the foreign state.
2. As prescribed in an applicable international agreement.
3. Via mail from the Clerk of Court to the head of the foreign state's Ministry of Foreign Affairs (28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3)).
4. Via the diplomatic channel 28 U.S.C. § 1608 (a)(4)

SPECIAL NOTES:

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(c)(1) and (c)(2) – Date of Service:

1. In the case of service under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4), service is deemed to have been made as of the date of the transmittal indicated in the certified copy of the diplomatic note.
2. In any other case under 28 U.S.C. § 1608 service is deemed to have been made as of the date of receipt applicable to the method of service employed.

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e) – Default Judgment

No Judgment by default shall be entered by a court of the United States or of a State against foreign state, a political subdivision thereof, or an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state, unless the claimant establishes his claim or right to relief by evidence satisfactory to the Court. A copy of any such default judgment shall be sent to a foreign state or political subdivision in the manner prescribed for service under 28 U.S.C. § 1608.

Role of the United States Department of State

The United States Department of State, Overseas Citizens Services, Office of Policy Review & Interagency Liaison is responsible for service and implementing regulations under the FSIA via the diplomatic channel in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4). (Source: www.travel.state.gov)

The defendant served by the United States Department of State MUST BE a FOREIGN STATE OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISION as defined by 1603 of FSIA, not an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state to be served under section 1608(b) of the Act. The United States Department of State DOES NOT serve NATURAL PERSONS under FSIA. (Source: www.travel.state.gov) The Act specifies that when service of process upon a foreign state cannot otherwise be effected under FSIA, the Clerk of Court may dispatch a request to the Secretary of State, attn: Director of Special Consular Services, for service upon a foreign state defendant.¹

The Act allows for service under FSIA 1608(a) (4) only after 30 days have passed since service was attempted under section 1608 (a) (3) (by any form of mail requiring a signed receipt). The U.S. Postal service and private courier services can deliver documents to virtually any location. Plaintiffs should attempt service under FSIA 1608 (a) (3) unless a foreign state has specifically objected to service by mail.²

The U.S. Department of State does not normally serve on a foreign state any documents not specifically mentioned in the Act; however, it reserves executive authority to communicate with foreign governments. Note: a default judgment does not include a document(s) directing further hearings on a judgment.³

Please review the United States Department of State's "Checklist for Plaintiff's Service of Process Upon a Foreign State." (Attachment A). If you have any additional questions regarding 28 USC § 1608(4) mailings, please contact U.S. State Department's Office of Policy Review and Inter-Agency Liaison at ASKPRI@state.gov or (202) 736-9110.

Complete the Form

Private litigants wishing to serve a person in one of the Convention countries should complete copies in duplicate of the three forms prescribed by the Convention: The "Request", the "Certificate" and the "Summary." Once the form is completed, the litigants must transmit them, together with the documents to be served. (See FRCP Rule 4 under Notes and Annotations to the Convention).

For further assistance in completing form, please refer to the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State, http://www.travel.state.gov/law/judicial/judicial_702.html or the Convention of 15 November 1965 on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters, <http://www.hcch.net/>

If the Clerk of Court is directed by a court Order to effect service, the Form should reflect the law firm's information as the "Identity and Address of the Applicant" and the Clerk of Court under the "Name and Address of the Requesting Authority." The Clerk of Court will effect service under FRCP 4(f)(2)(C)(ii), 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(3); 28 U.S.C. §1608(a)(4) or 28 U.S.C. §1608(b)(3)(B), depending on which rule the judge specifies. Please refer to Sections II and III for service instructions.

NOTE: For countries that require the form to be executed by an officer of the court, the Clerk of Court may sign and stamp the "Request." Checklist for Plaintiffs Service of Process upon a Foreign State

05/04/2011

The U.S. Department of State is charged, under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA), with handling service of process upon a foreign state or political subdivision through diplomatic channels. The Act specifies that when service of process upon a foreign state cannot otherwise be effected under FSIA, the clerk of court may dispatch a request to the Secretary of State, attn: Director of Special Consular Services, for service upon a foreign state defendant. The Department of State's service functions under the FSIA are currently administered by the Office of Policy Review and Inter-Agency Liaison, CA/OCS/PRI.

To avoid confusion and common mistakes, please take note of the following items before submitting a request for service under FSIA 1608(a)(4).

1. The defendant must be a foreign state or political subdivision, as defined in section 1603 of the Act, not an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state (to be served under section 1608(b) of the Act). The U.S. Department of State does not serve natural persons under the FSIA.
2. The Act allows for service under FSIA 1608(a)(4) only after 30 days have passed since service was attempted under section 1608(a)(3) (by any form of mail requiring a signed receipt). The U.S. Postal service and private courier services can deliver documents to virtually any location. Plaintiffs should attempt service under FSIA 1608(a)(3) unless a foreign state has specifically objected to service by mail. To determine whether a particular country objects to service by mail, please see our country-specific judicial assistance Information pages at http://travel.state.gov/law/info/judicial/judicial_2510.html.
3. The documents must be translated into the official language of the foreign state to be served.
4. The summons sheet and the notice of suit should state a 60 day (not 20 day) response time for the defendant.
5. The notice of suit (or default) should conform to the requirements of 22 CFR 93.2 (the statute specifically refers to notice of suit "in a form prescribed by the Secretary of State by regulation"). The notice of suit must contain a copy of the FSIA.
6. The Act requires plaintiff to have first attempted service under sections FSIA 1608(a)(1), (2) and (3) before proceeding to section 1608(a)(4). Thus, the U.S. Department of State requires a statement in writing from the plaintiff or the clerk certifying that these attempts were made or were otherwise not applicable.

Attachment A

7. There should be two copies of either (a) the summons, complaint and notice of suit or (b) a default judgment and notice of default (depending on the request).
8. In cases involving allegations of terrorism, plaintiffs should refer to section 1605(a)(7)(B) regarding arbitration requirements (however, we defer to the court as to the adequacy of any action taken by the plaintiffs in fulfillment of this requirement).
9. The Act requires the clerk of court dispatch the documents; however, a plaintiff may provide written confirmation that the court allowed plaintiff to act for the Clerk (after docketing).
10. All requests for FSIA 1608(a)(4) service of process should be addressed to: Director, Office of Policy Review and Inter-Agency Liaison (CA/OCS/PRI), U.S. Department of State, SA-29, 4th Floor, 2201 C Street NW, Washington, DC 20520.
11. As of March 3, 2010, the U.S. Department of State charges, in accordance with 22 CFR 22.1, a $2,275 fee (cashiers check/ money order should be made out to the U.S. Embassy or Consulate involved. For requests for service upon Iran and its political subdivisions the check or money order should be made out to "U.S. Embassy Bern).
12. Clerks who may have further questions regarding these issues may wish to refer to memos from the Administrative Office of U.S. Courts, dated, Nov. 7, 2000, May 20, 1982 and Nov. 6, 1980.
